Book a place in Boduan Sanctuary!

We don't like thinking about what will happen to our bodies after we die.
Save yourself and your family the trouble.

Take four easy steps.

One, sign here to say that you agree with this statement:

"I would like to be buried in Boduan Sanctuary Wood when I have died".

signed date.....

Two, fill in your contact details below.

Name (write clearly!)

Address

.....

Telephone numberemail

Three, make out a cheque to the Eternal Forest Trust Limited, or arrange a direct transfer of funds from your bank account to ours. (If you don't want to take this step yet, give a copy of this signed document to a close friend, relative, and/or your chosen executors, so that they understand your wishes and will act on them when the time comes.)

Here are our bank details:

Triodos Bank, Brunel House, 11 The Promenade, Bristol BS8 3NN. Sort code: 16-58-10

Account name: The Eternal Forest Trust Limited. Account number: 20010516

Four, post or give the completed form to us at Garth, 22 West End Parade, Pwllheli, Gwynedd LL53 5PN, with a deposit of £300 if you're ready to book your plot. We can agree a time to walk round the wood with you and choose a location that you like.

The Eternal Forest Trust will file a copy of the completed document, together with details of the plot you have chosen, and return the original to you with a contract. You should place these securely with your will and other important papers, and tell your family where they will find them in the event of your death. If we have agreed a location for your burial site, companion animals (pets) who pass away before you may be buried there.

It's never too late to contribute to the environment!

The Eternal Forest Trust is a registered charity (Charity no. 1110801) which is committed to planting, restoring and preserving indigenous woodland. We provide green burials, dedications, facilities for placing ashes, and our woodland is open to anyone to walk around at any time. Ring us on 01758 612006 to find out more.
